Recharter is Here!

The rechartering process is your unit's opportunity to clean up its roster, renew membership, and ensure insurance coverage.

The Recharter Access code email was sent to each unit's Key-3: the Unit Leader, the Charter Representative, and the Committee Chair.

Completed charters can be turned in at the November Roundtable.

More information about rechartering can be found through our website at ncbsa.org/Recharter

If you have any questions please contact your Unit Commissioner or Unit Service Coordinator.

15th Annual Merit Badge College

January 5, 2019
Rhode Island College

Catalog available in Mid-October

Registration goes live at midnight on 11/1/2018. Usually 700-800 Scouts register the first day so you may want to stay up late after trick-or-treating!

Scouting for Food is the Narragansett Council's single largest service project! Each unit is asked to collect non-perishable food items to be donated to their communities.

10/27/2018 – Door Hanger Distribution Day

11/3/2018 – Collection Day

We're excited about our new partner, Ocean State Job Lot! They promise to match pound-for-pound all food collected by our Scouts, up to 100,000 pounds, to go to our local food banks in your communities!

Thank you Ocean State Job Lot!
