Frequently Asked Questions

Should our unit have a checking account?
Yes, unit funds should be deposited in a checking account that requires two signatures.

Does a unit need its own tax identification number? If so, where do we get it?
Yes, council chartered units should obtain their own tax ID number by completing IRS Form SS-4, which requires the designation of a responsible party (www.irs.gov). For most Scouting units, the Committee Chair is an appropriate responsible party.

Who is responsible for the finances of the unit?
The unit committee is responsible, but the assets belong to the chartered organization.

Should our unit consider insuring our unit equipment?
Yes, the unit should consider insuring the unit equipment as it is not covered by the Council property insurance policy.

Can our unit deposit funds with the local council?
Yes, units can deposit funds to their credit in the Scout Shop.

What happens to the unit funds and equipment should the unit dissolve?
The unit committee shall apply unit funds and property to the payment of unit obligations and shall turn over the surplus, if any, to the chartered organization.

When should our unit submit a BSA Unit Money-Earning Application?
For all unit fund raising. Approval must be given by the council.

Is our unit considered tax-exempt by the IRS?
No and it is not the recommendation of the council that you apply for tax-exempt status as a 501(c)(3).

A volunteer suggested that our unit apply for its own tax-exempt status. Can we?
No, units should not incorporate or apply for their own tax-exempt status. Units are not legal entities.

Can our unit be covered under the BSA’s group exemption?
No. The IRS only allows local councils (and council trust funds) to be included under the BSA.

We can’t solicit gifts for our unit?
No, units are not permitted to solicit any gifts.

Does that mean people can’t make gifts to our unit?
Anyone can contribute, but the donor would not receive a charitable deduction.

Can my unit credit amounts from fundraising to an individual toward their expenses?
Expenses must be reasonable and related to Scouting for youth to “earn their own way.”
